While everyone's Memorial Day Weekend celebrations are going to look different this year, the meaning for the holiday remains the same. It's a time for everyone to come together as a nation to honor those we have lost while serving our country.

Thanks to the brave sacrifice of these men and women, we get to celebrate life; and in keeping with the spirit of Memorial Day, we might not be throwing a backyard party like normal, but we can still celebrate. So, whether you're a business promoting stay-at-home fun with the family or a content creator honoring the importance of Memorial Day, iStock by Getty Images makes your life easier.

As one of the world's leading royalty-free stock content marketplaces, iStock is known for offering millions of hand-picked premium images, illustrations, and videos. With 160,000 contributors, submitting more than 800,000 new files every month, the content is constantly evolving, and the options are endless.

iStock also offers handy categories to help ease the burden of searching and looking through their vast collection. Although they do offer a curated Memorial Day category, a few other helpful categories are:

- Family
- Garden Party
- Soldier

Grab a patriotic stock template for your Memorial Day Sale or find the perfect image to celebrate on your social media. It really is simple to get just what you need with iStock.
